Background

Brewer-Clifton is an award winning estate winery from the Sta. Rita Hills, CA. Producing critically acclaimed Pinot Noir & Chardonnay since 1995. Brewer-Clifton winery was founded in 1996 by two friends whose dream was to produce detailed and soil-expressive wines from Burgundian varietals planted on cool-climate vineyard sites in the western end of Santa Barbara's Santa Ynez Valley. Greg Brewer's and Steve Clifton's wines were met with immediate acclaim. Brewer-Clifton farms 5 monopole vineyards, planted exclusively to Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, and produces wines exclusively from these estate holdings.

Tasting Notes

"Starts trim and focused, and then the fruit accelerates and expands, with a burst of spicy raspberry, fresh earth, wilted rose and black licorice. The texture smoothes out, but this is appealing for the zesty personality and fine-grained tannins. Drink now. 5,700 cases made.

—JL " Wine Spectator 91, Issue Web Only 2016. "The polished, elegantly styled 2014 Pinot Noir Sta Rita Hills gives up lots of black cherry, crushed flowers, leather and spice aromas and flavors to go with a medium-bodied, supple and nicely textured profile on the palate. This fresh, nicely focused 2014 has nicely integrated acidity, very polished tannin and the balance and depth to keep for 5-6 years." Jeb Dunnuck, Robert Parker, 91 August 30, 2016.
