Background

The German settlement of Langmeil was first established in 1843, in an area adjacent to the North Para River along what is today known as Langmeil Road (Tanunda). The Langmeil property has been under vines since the early 1840's, the original Auricht estate comprising mixed farming, orchards, butcher, blacksmith, cobbler and, of course, a vineyard. The property was purchased in 1996 by three local businessmen whose families have lived in the Barossa Valley for several generations: Richard Lindner, Chris Bitter and Carl Lindner. They restored the old buildings and the village well, refurbished the winery and named it Langmeil, after the original village.

Tasting Notes

Deep crimson with purple hues. Lifted blueberries, black currants and black olive dominate the aroma, with lovely cedar and hints of licorice and sweet spice adding to the complexity. Bright and rich berry fruits coat the palate and mingle with brambly spice, hints of black olive and licorice. Full bodied with velvety, fine, grape and oak tannin adding to the structure which flows onto the long, fruitful and spicy finish.
