Background

Decades ago, Pasquale Fiumara brought to Australia from Italy the expertise of thousands of years of viticulture and winemaking. Lillypilly Estate was born and established at Leeton – the rich agricultural land in New South Wales’ largest grape growing area – the Riverina. Winemaker Robert Fiumara continues to create excellent wines by using some of the most advanced technology in the world to enhance his team’s individual attention to each wine. From a national trophy in the first vintage, Lillypilly Estate has collected hundreds of awards at home and abroad. This success has brought wine enthusiasts from all around the globe to Lillypilly's doors seeking wines designed for the discerning palate.

Tasting Notes

Ripe, luscious fruit aged in French oak makes this wine beautiful for drinking now. With a nose of bright red fruit and undertones of plum, the palate follows through with soft tannins and hints of ripe red berries blended in subtle complexity not often found in a wine of this price point.
