Background

Decades ago, Pasquale Fiumara brought to Australia from Italy the expertise of thousands of years of viticulture and winemaking. Lillypilly Estate was born and established at Leeton – the rich agricultural land in New South Wales’ largest grape growing area – the Riverina. Winemaker Robert Fiumara continues to create excellent wines by using some of the most advanced technology in the world to enhance his team’s individual attention to each wine. From a national trophy in the first vintage, Lillypilly Estate has collected hundreds of awards at home and abroad. This success has brought wine enthusiasts from all around the globe to Lillypilly's doors seeking wines designed for the discerning palate.

Tasting Notes

A little beauty – with its all-important pungent, grassy, leafy aroma with a hint of capsicum and gooseberries. Pale Straw in colour with a green tinge. The palate has lovely grapefruit and pineapple characters with creamy passion fruit. It possesses a lively and fresh finish with a generous length. Well suited to all things seafood and try with chicken salad, fresh goat’s cheese or sushi. Also tomato based dishes. Drink now.
