Background

In the late 1800's, the majestic Long Meadow Ranch property thrived with vineyards, apple orchards, olive groves, hay and a goat milk dairy until farming fell dormant during Prohibition. Over the following years, the property became swallowed by the encroaching forest until the Halls bought the property in 1989.

The Hall family carefully breathed life back into the land, nurturing it back to its glory, and then some, by cutting back the abandoned olive trees and replanting the vineyards and apple orchards as you see them growing today. Home to the Mayacamas Estate, the rugged 650-acre landscape nestled in the foothills of the Mayacamas Mountains also gave way to a long, sweeping meadow, thus the name Long Meadow Ranch was born.

Tasting Notes

The nose has a powerful combination of forest fruit and earthiness. On the palate, these flavors are accompanied by notes of dark chocolate, graham crackers, toasted almonds, and fruit blossom floral. The finish shows off cherry sappiness and an oily, smooth texture. Perfect with LMR Grass-fed Highland beef, with lamb, or with roasted game.
