Background

This private domain is one of the few of this importance in Mâconnais and can be traced back to the 11th century because it was part of the dependencies of the abbey of Cluny. The estate extends over 25ha of Chardonnay Vineyards.

Tasting Notes

With its pale yellow robe nimbed with green reflections, here is a wine whose nose is of a devastating charm: dominated by intense citrus notes (lemon, grapefruit), it also distinguishes apples, pears and white flowers. The mouth is of a beautiful balance, between roundness and refreshing final vivacity. Spicy, floral and fruity notes shatter and persist in the final.
