Background

Pirramimma was established in 1892 in the beautiful McLaren Vale in South Australia. Pirramimma won the trophy for Best Australian Producer at the Vienna International Wine Challenge 2 years ago, incorporating that success into all its front labels for all its current releases.

Tasting Notes

The award-winning Pirramimma has a particular talent for Petit Verdot, which they first released in 1994 following 11 years of experimentation. Pirramimma consistently coaxes big aromas and flavours from their Petit Verdot, delivering notes such as rich dark fruit, cigar box and earth, with lifted red flowers. Look for a structured wine with impressive balance that will be a major hit with grilled steak.
